Notice to the Herding Community:

2006 Herding Advisory Committee : Request for Input to the 2006 Herding Advisory Committee

The AKC Performance Events Department has just formed a new Herding Advisory Committee to review the current AKC Herding Regulations and to propose changes and updates that will enhance the AKC Herding Program. Informational packets were sent to club presidents and secretaries on July 14, 2006.

The AKC Performance Events Department is inviting herding clubs and the herding community in general to provide input to the committee. While general comments can be sent to the Herding Advisory Committee, constructive suggestions for amending specific areas of the Herding Regulations are most welcome.

To guarantee the full review of the suggestions from the herding community, the Herding Advisory Committee should be contacted directly at hac2006@akc.org, or through The American Kennel Club, Performance Events Department, c/o Lisa Carroll, 5580 Centerview Drive, Raleigh, NC 27606-3390. While it will be impossible to provide a reply to each individual message, the committee will carefully review all input, comments, and suggestions.

Ed Note:

There is still plenty of time to make your input on this. My sources tell me that the committee will probably meet in October to begin their deliberations. A Ranch course similar to those offered by AHBA and ASCA is definitely being considered so if you have some ideas about having such a course, Now is the time to speak up.
